

CARIBBEAN SHIPPING ASSOCIATION

CARIBBEAN MARITIME INSTITUTE

APPLY NOW!

The Monica Silvera Tuition bursary

US $5,000

to four (4) deserving candidates

For students interested in pursuing the following:

Bachelor Degree Programmes

- Bachelor of Science in Logistics and Supply Chain Management
- Bachelor of Engineering in Industrial Systems
- Bachelor of Science in International Shipping
- Bachelor of Science in Port Management
- Bachelor of Science in Cruise Shipping and Marine Tourism
- Bachelor of Science in Security Administration and Management
- Bachelor of Science in Customs Processes, Freight Forwarding and Immigration

Seafaring Programmes

- Bachelor of Science in Marine Transportation (Deck)
- Bachelor of Engineering in Marine Engineering

The successful awardee would have successfully completed all three (3) stages and attained the highest points among the shortlisted group of applicants in the following areas.

i) Essay writing:

“Regional significance of the Caribbean Shipping Association (CSA) to the Western Hemisphere.”

Essays will be submitted along with completed application forms and Curriculum vitae.

The deadline for submission is May 30, for the August intake of students.

Word limit: 2000 words

ii) Review of requirements

- o Academic Qualification
- o Community involvement
- o Extra- curriculum activity engagement

iii) Interview

N.B Entry requirements of CMI include at least five (5) CSEC/GCE (O'Level) subjects. Conditions apply.

Submission deadline February 28, 2015

For more information contact the Caribbean Maritime Institute at info@cmi.edu.jm or 1(876)618-7447, 1(876)924-8072
www.cmi.edu.jm